

Balkan regional platform for youth participation and dialogue

The project is funded by the EU

For the needs of the Balkan regional platform for youth participation and dialogue, financed by European Commission, through the program Civil Society Facility, Operating grants to IPA SCO Associations, Support to regional thematic associations Regional youth working group announces:

Viral Video Call

V ideo that can show youth participation is needed.

I

f you are a young person or you are feeling that way and you think that you have talent for making videos, then you are the one we've been waiting for.

R eady to do a viral one?

A

ll you need is smartphone, tablet, video camera or whatever that can do some filming.

L ooking forward to see what you have made.

And guess what, if you make it in the TOP3 you will get the opportunity to participate in the Regional Youth Forum for Local Democracy in Subotica, in the beginning of September – travel and participation costs covered.

There are some conditions that need to be fulfilled:

- You need to be a citizen of one of these five countries: Bosnia & Herzegovina, Serbia, Macedonia, Montenegro or Kosovo*.
- All videos must be in English or subtitled in English.
- Maximum running time is 3-5 minutes.
- And the video quality must be in good resolution (watchable at least)
- Video story must meet the theme of youth participation

If you find this interesting you can send your videos to the following address: svetlana.siljanoska@aldaintranet.org until the 15th of June 2015.

